Crash Fatal For 2

S. Johnson

Two Dover-Foxcroft teenagers were killed and three others received injuries Friday afternoon when the 1965 model sedan in which they were riding left Route 16 near Dover-Foxcroft and struck a tree stump and rock, coming to rest on its right side after finally hitting a maple tree, police said.

Sheldon Johnson, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Johnson, Dover-Foxcroft, became Maine's 82nd traffic fatality of 1966 as a result of the accident, which involved five 17 year olds, Dr. Linus Stitham, Dover-Foxcroft, medical examiner, said.

A second teenager involved in the wreck, 17 year old Thomas Burns, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Burns, died Friday evening at the Eastern Maine General Hospital.

Police said the auto was driven by John Plummer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Plummer, was the only youth of the group to escape serious injury. The sedan left the right side of the road headed towards Dover from Milo and fishtailed 80 feet before crashing, according to State Trooper Clifford Gray of East Cornish investigating officer.

Police said the car was a total wreck and the motor and transmission were thrown 50 feet beyond the wreckage. The accident happened not long after the teenagers had left Foxcroft Academy for the final school day of the year.

Plummer was taken to the Mayo Memorial Hospital and released after treatment for facial lacerations, cuts and bruises.

Charter Presented at Hathaway Co.

Joseph Salerno, New England Director, Amalgamated Clothing Workers Union, told a labor meeting in Dover-Foxcroft, Me., to urge the U.S. Senate to restore the $1.60 per hour effective Date of February 1, 1968 instead of 1969 as originally recommended by the Administration to Congress.

Salerno said: "This gradual higher minimum wage is not inflationary because it raises the buying power of the lowest income groups while reducing welfare costs, slums and juvenile delinquency."

Salerno also reported that the Union has reopened negotiations for an increase in wages and fringe benefits in the shirt, sportswear and cotton garment industries as the Union contracts expire in September of this year throughout the nation covering over 125,000 members.

The Hathaway Shirt Company now operates four plants employing about 1500 workers located in Waterville, Calais, Dover-Foxcroft, Maine and Lowell, Mass., all under the same collective bargaining agreement with the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America.

Salerno presented the new Charter to the Dover-Foxcroft, Me. Hathaway plant employees, members of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America now Local #926. He also installed the following officers and executive board members: Althea Klimavicz, President; Ruth Buzzell, Vice President; Areleen Dean, Secy, Treas.; Mrs. Jean Hiscott, Mrs. Diane Rukgnis, Mrs. Diane Burton and Mrs. Glenn Walker.

It all started on Thursday, June 7 with the Seniors Mother's Tea, continued on Friday, June 8 with the Senior Banquet at Squaw Mountain Inn, and continued with Senior Reception on Saturday, June 9 and evolved into the actual Commencement Exercises.

THIS WILL BE THE LAST LETTER WHICH WE WILL HAVE FROM DAVID COOK IN VIETNAM. HIS MOTHER HAS VERY GRACIOUSLY SHARED HIS LETTERS WITH US. SHE IS TO BE COMMENDED FOR RAISING A SON WITH A SENSE OF A RESPONSIBILITY AND HUMOR IN FACING IT.

Dear Mama:

Got back from Hong Kong today and was glad to be back in a way, Hong Kong is a real nice place but give me a small New England town. Hong Kong is quite exciting but I wouldn't want to stay here much longer, it's too expensive.

I won't be going back up front. I turn in all my jungle clothes in the A.M. & they've reassigned my rifle. I guess the war is over for me. I wish everyone could see that but we can't quit now & we shouldn't. The Buddhists don't want us to quit and leave. I don't believe they like Uncle Sam's greenbacks for one thing and if we did leave it wouldn't be too long before they'd really have a reason to protest, & some one else would be doing the same way or the other.

My Plt. Sgt. & everyone else has seen the orders but I haven't yet. I'm Sgt. Cook now according to them. My status has changed quite abruptly. I don't do any more work, but supervise. If I stayed in the Army, manual labor & I would part company for ever more. But I'll be HOME late in June. Remember me to everyone, and I'll be home soon.

David

David plans to take a summer course at Maine in August. He wants to settle down in studying before he becomes a Freshman in September.
Miss Janice Buzzell has been selected as the Junior of the Month for May. This award of ten dollars is given each month during the school year to a member of the Junior Class at Milo High School for outstanding service and citizenship during the month for which the award is given.

Miss Buzzell has been active in the Milo School Bands for the past seven years, four of which have been the Milo High School Band. She is presently treasurer of the Milo High School Chapter of the National Honor Society, has participated in many of the activities in school, and is representative of the type of student desired in the selection of a Junior of the Month. We are proud to have Miss Buzzell as our candidate for this award.

Scott Smart has been selected as the Junior of the Month for April. This award of ten dollars is given each month during the school year to a member of the Junior Class at Milo High School for outstanding service and citizenship during the month for which the award is given.

Scott demonstrates these two qualities in a number of ways, a few of which are noted herein. By working in his off-school hours Scott is able to help support his family and yet, at the same time is able to maintain an excellent record of school attendance. Scott doesn't waste his in-school hours but, instead, perseveres in his studies and always has a good attitude about school. Without doubt the most important single quality is the fact that Scott has been complimented by many of his teachers and classmates at Milo High School as being an extremely polite student, a quality which deserves much merit. Congratulations, Scott!

During the past several years a "Junior of the Month" award of ten dollars has been given to a junior boy or girl at Milo High School for outstanding service and citizenship, particularly during the month for which the award is given. This award has been given each month during the school year except September and in addition, a "Junior of the Year" award of fifty dollars is given at the end of the school year.

This year the anonymous donor of these awards has requested that the "Junior of the Month" award be given alternately to a boy and a girl during the school year and that the "Junior of the Year" award be given to a boy.

The "Junior of the Year" for 1965-66 is Kendall Lord, who has displayed all the fine qualities desired in a good school citizen. Kendall, an excellent piano player, has demonstrated his ability on the piano before organizations as a soloist. He is a member of the Milo High School band, is a student librarian, and is a good student academically. In addition, Kendall placed third in the State Science Fair in Chemistry.

Awards were presented by principal Harry Diehl.

MAINE HIGHWAY SAFETY COMMITTEE NOTES

The chairman of the Maine Highway Safety Committee is extremely worried over the current spiral in traffic accidents.

Jack S. Atwood said that last weekend's traffic toll is indicative of the tremendous increase of traffic mishaps on Maine. According to the chairman, State Police reports Monday morning indicated that a post 100 accidents occurred between Friday and Monday. "In addition," said Atwood, "half of those accidents produced serious injury. And, the death toll over the weekend was reported at five."

"We are very concerned in the Highway Safety office," said Atwood, "Atwood blamed driver attitudes as the primary cause for the tremendous rise. He said, "We are certain of just what to do to prevent traffic crashes. We're certain because we know that most accidents are caused by driving errors, and that the only way to stop this is to appeal to all drivers to join efforts."

According to Atwood, defensive driving and knowledge of the problem will do more than anything else to stem the tide. He urged cooperation by the media in keeping the public abreast of the problem. Chairman Atwood also urged the public to "read and hear about all accidents with the thought of how it could have been prevented."

Maine is currently running almost 1000 accidents ahead of last year.

EVER RIDE IN A HELICOPTER? WOULD YOU LIKE TO? VISIT THE GUILFORD SESQUICENTENNIAL JUNE 17-18!
A member of the Maine Highway Safety Committee has cautioned motorists to be on the lookout for horseback riders.

Leonard L. Bishop, a member of the Executive Board of the Safety Committee, notes that more and more summer resort areas are sponsoring the use of horseback riding along Maine's back roads. Bishop warns that horses are unpredictable under certain conditions, and one of these conditions is when a vehicle is passing a horse.

"Whether the horse is ridden or driven," contends Bishop, "it may become easily frightened by the noise of the engine of a car."

The Maine Highway Safety Committee reminds horseback riders that Maine Law requires the motorist to slow or stop upon seeing a frightened animal, but the prime responsibility for the safety of the horse remains with the rider. Riders are urged to use trails always where possible, and to be extremely cautious when leading or riding an animal on a traveled highway.
