MAINE CIVIL DEFENSE AND PUBLIC SAFETY

The State Civil Defense Emergency Broadcasting Transmitter was tested on June 12 by Norman Gallant, Manager of WFAU and State CD Director Leslie H. Stanley.

Stanley said this operation completes the radio link between the State Emergency Operating Center and the people of the state.

The radio studio and transmitting facility can monitor AM and FM stations, make tape recordings, record all broadcasting from the studio on a 24-hour tape, and transmit and receive on a special FM frequency between WFAU and the State EOC.

The official information from State CD will reach the public via WFAU whose signal will also be picked up by WMTW and be broadcast on the FM frequency which can be copied by all stations in southern and central Maine. These stations will, upon receiving the signal, transmit the information over their respective station frequencies.

The EOC radio facility will be operated by personnel from the two local broadcasting stations under the supervision of Norman Gallant, State CD Emergency Radio Officer.

The radio facility is designed to give factual information to the public in the event of a nuclear or natural disaster. The messages can be broadcast live by either the governor or State Civil Defense Director during activation of the State Emergency Operating Center.

The new National Warning Signals have been redesigned to provide one signal, the wavering tone or short blips to mean the nation is under attack. The second signal, a steady tone which used to be a warning signal for national disaster has been changed to mean a state-wide or local disaster and can be used on the authority of State or local government. It will mean "Listen to your radio for essential emergency information." Use of this signal will always be accompanied by public explanation and instruction over radio or TV broadcast stations or other means.

In the event the EBS is used nationally the system will provide to the public presidential and national programming and also State survival information.

Should an emergency occur, tune your radio to the station that is on the air and nearest to you.

Stanley said, "The State CD EOC and staff have the capability of receiving information by radio from Regional CD, other State Agencies and County Government, the capability of adequately analyzing the information, and now with this new facility, for broadcasting survival information directly to Maine people.

JEHOVAH’S WITNESSES TO ATTEND CONVENTION AT FORT KENT ARMY

Maine’s first bilingual convention of ministers of the Watchtower Society is scheduled for this weekend at the Fort Kent Army. Approximately five hundred of Jehovah’s Witnesses are expected to be on hand for the opening session Friday night. Murray Mayo of the Milo area will speak on the subject “Strengthening the Family Arrangement” that evening. Richard Mayo and his assistant, Conrad Demers, also of the Milo area will transport the necessary equipment to the assembly site. Darrell Brewer of Sebec will assist in serving refreshments at the assembly.

According to Mr. Brewer the key to success for a conference of this size is organization. Nineteen convention departments, run entirely by volunteer workers, have been organized to insure a successful three-day assembly. The rooming department for instance has the responsibility of seeing that all the delegates are comfortably accommodated in hotels, motels and private homes. The feeding of the delegates is the responsibility of the cafeteria department. Nourishing, balanced meals will be provided at a moderate price.

"Add to Your Faith Endurance" has been chosen as the theme for all three days. Emphasizing that theme will be the two-hour motion picture "God Cannot Lie!" a full color synopsis of the Bible as a whole. It builds faith by: (1) showing the internal harmony of the Scriptures, thus proving Divine Authorship and (2) the reliability of God’s promises by showing the accurate fulfillment of Bible prophecy.

Mr. Brewer commenting on the theme said, "The need for more faith is particularly apparent in today’s youth. The Witnesses are overcoming this problem by making their worship a family affair. Youth are taught a responsibility toward their Creator and their fellowman. They actively participate in service to God and fellow humans. Many of the younger Witnesses will have part on the assembly program, which shows the training of children as the responsibility of the parents. The sessions will provide something of practical benefit for every member of the family", said Mr. Brewer.

The highlight of the convention will be the Sunday 3 P.M. showing of the film 'God Cannot Lie!' which will be narrated in both French and English. All are invited to see the faith-building film free of charge.

From the Pastors' Desk

Rev. Carlton Cockey
United Baptist Church, Milo

We are fortunate to have the text of Rev. Cockey's Baccalaureate address to Milo High School and we felt it was an appropriate message for all young people at this time so we are pleased to reproduce it for our readers.

"THE OTHER SIDE"

I want to speak to the graduates of the Milo High School words of wisdom from the Word of God. This will be helpful to all as we look at God's way of success. Every parent has a secret desire for their children to be more of a success in the world than they have been. There are certain rules for success that must be followed if you are to attain success for yourself. The idea that success can be had without God in one's life is a monstrosity created in the minds of men be they politicians, educators, farmers, lawyers, or students. Let us look at a principle for success as God speaks to Joshua, a general and a civil administrator.

"Be strong and of good courage: for unto this people shalt thou divide for an inheritance the land, which I sware unto their fathers to give them" (Joshua 1:6). Joshua was to be strong. Graduates, you need to be strong in order to study and work for advancement. How may I be strong, you ask? Often forgotten is the command to keep the Sabbath Day for rest and renewal of the body and for worship of God. If we are to do our best we must be physically strong. We must have a rested body and have a keen mind. Let us do our work in the six days allotted to us. We will be able to do much more if we rest faithfully on the Sabbath Day which is Sunday. Also Joshua was admonished to be of good courage. Fear or courage is a mental thing. We need to prepare ourselves to face the future with courage. We fear because we see our limitations. We have courage because we see our weakness made strong with the help of Almighty God.

"Only be thou strong and very courageous; thou shalt divide the land by lot, which I sware unto thy fathers to give unto them; from the wilderness, even from the Red Sea, even from the River, even unto the great sea eastward, the land of the Canaanites, and all that dwell in the land, the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Jebusites, and the Hivites, and the的儿子. The truth is the gospel of Christ. This is a message of deliverance from bondage to Satan and his works. This is the Good-News that sets men, women, boys and girls free from sin and from fear. The unbelieving religious people..."
knowledge of God and needed to stand in Christian principles, if followed, make us grow constantly in a knowledge of God and his way to success.

As you travel the straight and narrow road you may be called to whom he spoke and admitted you need of a Saviour. Joshua was to walk the straight and narrow road. There are two ways of success. The broad way leads to success in the eyes of the world. You may have to cheat, trample down people or be immoral but you can be exalted in the eyes of the world. This is a success that can build up and up until it is cut off by death. As you travel the straight and narrow road you may be called on to make many sacrifices but the success at the end of the road continues right on throughout eternity. We have the example of other great men of God and their influence on nations. Moses, Abraham, David and Solomon left their mark. In our nation we see General Washington and the rail splitter, Abraham Lincoln standing out above all. They served God without fear. When little men begin to cast long shadows, the sun is setting on a civilization. Graduates be Big. It is not your strength but it is God working in and through you that causes you to gain the victories needed in the battle of life.

The world offers a broad way of deception. The other side is God's side. The world offers success that lasts a life time. God offers success that lasts throughout eternity. In everything I urge you to be yourself. Do not be molded into a pattern that will destroy all the power of ambition you may have. A Christian is one who has made his own decision to follow Jesus Christ. Christian principles, if followed, make us grow constantly in a knowledge of God and his way to success.

What's On

This Week?

by Matt Troy

Billy Graham's Canadian Centennial Crusade will be presented in two parts this week, Thursday and Friday at 7:30 p.m. on WABI-TV. (Channel 5)

This week's CBS Thursday Night Movie is entitled "First men on the Moon". It's H.G. Wells science fiction thriller. That's on Thursday night at 9:00 on CBS. (Channel 5)

Vic Damone is Don's summer replacement. Vic's variety program debuts this Thursday night at 10:00 on NBC. (Ch. 2)

Gail Martin, one of Don's daughters, is going to be with him each week along with Carol Lawrence.

The third (and I hope last) Twiggy special will be presented Friday evening at 8:00 in color on ABC. (Channel 7) The program examines the latest symbol of fashion.

Other good shows this week are Gunsmoke, Saturday at 10:00 on CBS (Channel 5), Walt Disney's Wonderful World of Color Sunday at 7:30 on NBC (Channel 2), Iron Horse, Monday at 7:30 on ABC (Channel 7), Award Theater (entitled "The Thing") at 6:00 on WEMT (Channel 7), The Virginian, Wednesday at 7:30 on NBC (Channel 2).

Away We Go is Jackie Gleason's summer replacement, and while it's not Gleason, it isn't a bad replacement. Hosts Buddy Greco, George Carlin and Buddy Rich deliver a few (but fuzzy) lines. The music of Allyn Ferguson and the orchestra is excellent while the Mirian Nelson dancers are fair. All in all it's better than watching Flipper, but not much!

Note: Any of our readers would like information about the stars write me (Matt Troy, 17 South Main Street, Guilford, Maine 04443) and I'll be glad to answer it in this column.

Late Note: Be sure to watch CBS Reports: The Warren Report. It will be presented in three parts Sunday, Monday and Tuesday at 10:00 p.m. on CBS (Channel 5).
D-F CHURCHES PLAN
YOUTH DAY CAMPING

The Methodist and United Baptist Churches of Dover-Foxcroft are planning a Day
Camp program to be held June 26-30. There will be two divisions in the program. The Pioneer Unit will be for boys and girls going into the 5th and 6th grades. The Explorer Unit will be for youth going into the 7th and 8th grades. Headquarters for the outdoor program will be the Sebec Lodge at Greeley's Landing. Buses will leave from the churches each morning at 9:00 a.m. and return at 4:00 p.m. Campers should bring a sack lunch, equipment for outdoor fun in the woods, a Bible and notebook. On rainy days, raingear will be necessary.

Co-leaders for the program are the Rev. Gordon Hemphill and the Rev. Raymond Wixsoh assisted by a group of volun-ters. This new approach in outdoor Christian Education is apt to project. With a good re-response, it could be expanded in future years to include younger children. The program is open to all youth in this age level in Dover-Fox-croft and will include campers from Charleston Hill and At-tkinson.
